Parent and Teacher Guide

Studies have proven learning is enhanced through the use of several senses. A recent study shows that we retain 10 percent of what we see, 20 percent of what we hear, and 50 percent of what we see and hear. But when we see, hear and do, we retain 90 percent of the information. (Lisa Marie Nelson, Ph.D., Author “The Healthy Family Handbook”).

The purpose of this Resource & Activity Book is to help children learn and retain the story theme and principles in a fun and educational way. Your children will love coloring pages, solving puzzles, matching games, completing word searches, and much more! Each Resource & Activity Book also features challenging questions and activities for children from preschool through middle school. And in the rare case you don’t know an answer, there’s an answer key in the back!

LEVEL OF DIFFICULTY

The activities in this book are designed in three levels of difficulty designated by symbols. The activities with one symbol are geared towards younger children while the activities with two and three symbols become increasingly challenging for older children.

LEVEL One
Easy

LEVEL Two
Intermediate

LEVEL Three
Advanced

CURRICULUM RELATED

These educational activities are related to various educational discipline such as social studies (geography, history, culture), language arts (spelling, creative writing, grammar, literature), math (simple equations), and science. There are also activities for character development, video awareness, problem solving, music, and art. The subject codes below are for your convenience.

REFERENCES

For those wishing to further study the life of Harriet Tubman, some of the references used in research for the Resource & Activity Book are listed below, along with other titles that may be of interest.

Harriet Tubman is one of the bravest women in history.
Traveling North

Make your way from Maryland to Pennsylvania through the maze below. Watch out for the traps along the way. You are traveling North, so start at the bottom and work your way up!
See how many words YOU can make out of the letters in the name:

H A R R I E T T U B M A N

NOTE: You cannot use any letter more times that it appears in the name.
(For example: no more than one M, two T’s, etc.)

TOTAL POINTS____:

- 5-15 = Junior
- 16-30 = Intermediate
- 31-45 = Advanced
- 46-60 points = Ace
- 61-85 = Champ
- 86-100 = Super Champ
- 101 and up = Out of Sight!
Using the letter at the top of each triangle, add a letter to make a two-letter word, then add two letters to make a three-letter word. The sentences beside each triangle are the clues that will help you find the right words. The first puzzle is already worked out for you.

1. a. Harriet Tubman was born IN Maryland in 1820.
   b. Harriet helped the North to WIN the Civil War.

2. a. Many slaves escaped ____ the Underground Railroad.
   b. Harriet was the first ____ in her family to escape.

3. a. ____ she grew older, Harriet longed for freedom.
   b. Harriet ____ free when she reached Pennsylvania.

4. a. Harriet stayed ___ many different “stations” on the Underground Railroad.
   b. Many times there wasn’t much food, so she ____ very little.

JUST FOR FUN!

Now you can make up your own triangle puzzlers! Remember to change only one letter at a time to make new words.
“I may have to sell some of my best slaves.”
The secret message below is something that Harriet Tubman told people when she talked about slavery. Decode the message by matching the shapes in the coded message with the shapes in the Code Box. Write the word on the blank.

WILLS  GOD  WILL  WILLED  SLAVES

WE  US  MEN  DO  AS  FREE

The Southern slaves longed for freedom. Even their songs told of their hope of freedom. Many of the slaves became Christians in America and created their own spiritual songs. Many times these spiritual songs would have two meanings, one meaning for the Bible story and another meaning for the slaves’ lives.

“Go Down Moses,” a popular black spiritual, had two meanings to its words. One meaning told about Moses in the Bible and the other told about what the slaves were enduring every day. Read the words to this song and then answer the questions at the bottom of the page.

“Go Down Moses”

When Israel was in Egypt’s Land,
Let my people go.
Oppressed so hard they could not stand,
Let my people go.
Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt’s Land,
Tell old Pharaoh, let my people go.
No more shall they in bondage toil,
Let my people go.
Let them come out with Egypt’s spoil,
Let my people go.
Go down, Moses, way down in Egypt’s Land,
Tell old Pharaoh, let my people go.

1. What was the slaves’ personal meaning for “Egypt’s Land”?

2. What place would have been considered “the Promised Land” in the slaves’ lives?

3. Who do you think was the “Pharaoh” in the slaves’ lives?

4. Why do you think Harriet Tubman was given the nickname “Moses of her people”?
Harriet traveled almost ninety miles from her home in Maryland to her freedom. She knew if she made it to a certain state she would be free. What was the name of the state?

Go through the maze and cross off every other letter starting with the “A.” The remaining letters spell the name of the state that offered freedom to Harriet. Write the letters on the blanks below.

“Papa, I got a right to go free or die!”
Someone taught Harriet Tubman how to survive in the woods. She learned which berries to eat and how to walk quietly without making a noise. This helped her on the Underground Railroad. Who was her teacher?

Find the answer by coloring every other letter starting with the “H.” The letters you color will spell out the answer.

Harriet runs away to freedom.
Read the riddles below about characters from the story of Harriet Tubman. Draw a line from each riddle to the character it represents.

When Harriet came, I covered my eyes,
Because I wouldn't tell Master Thompson lies.

I don't care for those whose skin is black,
But if they run away, I'll try to get them back.

I helped passengers ride a secret train,
To set them free from their slavery and pain.

I am the mother of a truly brave girl,
And she brought freedom to my dark, sad world.
Solve these equations to answer the questions about Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad.

1. What year was Harriet Tubman born?
   \[182 \times 10 = \underline{\quad}\]

2. How many brothers and sisters did Harriet Tubman have?

3. How old was Harriet Tubman when she ran away from Maryland?
   \[6 \times 5 = \underline{\quad}\]

4. Harriet worked on the Underground Railroad for about how many years?
   \[13 + 7 = \underline{\quad}\]

5. How many slaves were freed by the Underground Railroad?
   \[32 \times 100 = \underline{\quad}\]

6. How many slaves did Harriet Tubman help to escape?
   \[30 \times 10 = \underline{\quad}\]

7. What year did the slaves officially gain their freedom because of a new law?
   \[186 \times 10 = \underline{\quad}\]

8. Which amendment to the United States Constitution guaranteed freedom for the slaves? (These amendments are known by numbers.)
   \[36 - 23 = \underline{\quad}\text{th}\]

9. How old did Harriet Tubman live to be?
   \[3 \times 31 = \underline{\quad}\]
Quilt-making is a hobby and craft that has been practiced in America for hundreds of years. Americans have often used their quilts to tell the history of their families. Each square of fabric represented a page in their family's history. Sometimes the squares were made from fabrics that held a special memory. Many times the squares were decorated with pictures, words, and symbols (stitched with colorful thread) to represent events in their lives.

Using the squares below, design and color a history of the slaves who used the Underground Railroad. Be creative and use your imagination!
Harriet’s family is very sad when she leaves.
Read the following paragraph about the Underground Railroad. There are seven misspelled words somewhere within the sentences. Write the seven words correctly on the lines below and you will discover a secret message.

Thee

Underground Railroad was a network of secret paths that led escaping slaves to freedom in the North. The Southern slaves were led by “conductorz” from “station” to “station.” The stations whirr hiding places such as homes or barns, and the owners were called “stationmasters.” Harriet Tubman and other courageous conductors were given directions by people called “pilots.” The food, clothing, and medicine provided for the escaping slaves were called “cargo.” More than 3,200 people, both blacks and whites, helped run the Underground Railroad for more than fifty years.
Imagine what it might have been like to travel the Underground Railroad! Pretend you are a child traveling with one of your parents on the way North. How would you feel? Would you be afraid? What would you do first when you reached freedom? Write about one day of your travels on the lines below.

Harriet’s first stop on the Underground Railroad.
Each one of the sentences below tells part of the story of Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad. Number the sentences from 1 to 4 in the order that the events happened. If you number the sentences correctly, the first letters of the sentences will spell a word that describes Harriet's new life in the North.

____ Even after she was safe in Pennsylvania, Harriet wanted to go back and rescue her family.

____ Running away was dangerous, but Harriet decided to try it anyway.

____ From sunrise to sunset, Harriet worked hard on her master's plantation.

____ Each one of Harriet's family members was brought to safety on the Underground Railroad.
There are two steps to this puzzle. First, black out every letter that appears four times or more. Then copy the remaining letters from left to right to spell a word that meant freedom for Harriet when she ran away from her master.

The word that meant freedom to Harriet was:

Harriet is on her way to freedom under a load of potatoes.
You’re a detective in 1840. Many slaves are escaping from their masters. The slaveowners want you to find how they are escaping.

Solve the mystery using the clues below. See how few clues you need. The fewer the better!

CLUE 1  Illegal activity
CLUE 2  Involved hundreds of people - black and white
CLUE 3  Very secretive
CLUE 4  Road to freedom
CLUE 5  Imaginary train
CLUE 6  Had many “stations”
CLUE 7  Usually ran at night
CLUE 8  Used many “conductors”
CLUE 9  Went across many states
CLUE 10  Ran without rails

SOLUTION: ____________ ____________

CLUES NEEDED: ______

6-10 clues needed - GREAT DETECTIVE!
1-5 clues needed - SUPER DETECTIVE!
Slaves often had very little food or cooking tools, but they were creative with what they had. The “hoe cake” was named after a creative cooking method that slaves in Virginia used. The slaves would take the cornmeal they were given and mix it with water to create a simple kind of cornbread. Then they would heat the cakes in round shapes on their hoes. That’s right, because they didn’t have many tools for cooking, they cooked with the tools from the field!

You can make your own hoe cakes with the recipe below. This recipe will make 10 or 12 cakes, so invite your friends over and enjoy your cooking! (Ask a grown-up to help you with the boiling water and the hot skillet.)

HOE CAKES

Things you need:
- medium bowl
- mixing spoon
- measuring cup
- skillet
- measuring spoons
- spatula

Ingredients:
- 2 cups white cornmeal (you can use yellow cornmeal, but the slaves used white)
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon bacon grease
- boiling water

Instructions:
1. Stir cornmeal, salt, and bacon grease together in a bowl.
2. Stir in enough boiling water to create a thick and wet batter. Add water a little bit at a time. The batter should not be stiff or runny.
3. Heat a greased skillet and drop spoonfuls of the batter in round shapes (like small pancakes).
4. Turn the cakes with a spatula when one side has browned. Pat the cake down and cook the other side. Remove the cakes when both sides are brown.
5. Enjoy!

TRUE OR FALSE

Read each statement below. If it is true, circle the “T.” If it is false, circle the “F.”

1. Harriet Tubman was happy to be a slave in the South. T F
2. Slaves needed to buy a ticket to ride the Underground Railroad. T F
3. Many white Americans were opposed to slavery in the United States. T F
4. Harriet Tubman helped many slaves escape slavery by taking the Underground Railroad to the North. T F
5. Plantation owners were glad to see troublesome slaves leave, so they never bothered to track them down. T F
6. Slaves often hid in houses, barns, and fields as they traveled the Underground Railroad. T F
7. A person who led slaves from the South to the North on the Underground Railroad was known as a “conductor.” T F
8. Harriet Tubman was given the nickname “Moses” because she gave laws to her people. T F
9. Harriet and her family knew they were safe when they saw the sign that said “Maryland.” T F
10. Harriet could not enjoy her freedom until her family was also free. T F
Harriet “conducts” her mother and father on the Underground Railroad.
1. How were Harriet and her family treated by their owner?

2. Where did slaves have to go to find freedom in the United States?

3. How did Harriet Tubman plan to escape from her master?

4. What did Harriet do to trick the hunting dog that was tracking her as she escaped?

5. If the Underground Railroad was not underground or a railroad, why do you think it was called this name?

6. What state did Harriet escape to for safety?

7. What unexpected thing did Harriet do once she had reached freedom?

8. Why did people begin to call Harriet “Moses”?

9. Who were the last members of Harriet’s family to be rescued?

10. Who helped Harriet escape by taking pins out of Thompson’s carriage?

11. What kind of jobs did Harriet do during the Civil War?

12. How did Harriet continue to help people even after the Civil War?
NOTE TO THE TEACHER: These are activities for a group to discuss and think about.

1. There were many other men and women who wanted to help slaves gain their freedom. Read about other people such as Sojourner Truth, Frederick Douglass, and Harriet Beecher Stowe who used lectures, newspapers, and books to tell people why slavery should be ended.

2. Slave owners usually did not like to let their slaves learn to read or write. Why do you think this is so? It has been said that “readers are leaders.” How would this have been true for the slaves?

3. Many brave people endangered their lives and homes to help slaves escape to the North. Pretend you are a “Stationmaster” on the Underground Railroad. Write a diary entry that you think you might have made while helping a slave escape.

4. The Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution was ratified in 1865 when Harriet Tubman was 45 years old. Read a copy of this amendment and think about how Harriet must have felt when she learned about this new law.

5. How is the story of American black slavery similar to the slavery the Israelites endured in Egypt thousands of years ago? Read the book of Exodus to see how God freed those people. Do you see why they nicknamed Harriet Tubman as “Moses”?

To this day Harriet Tubman is still remembered as “The Moses of her people” for good reason. From 1849 to 1860, in 17 dangerous missions to the Confederate South, she helped more than 300 slaves escape to freedom in the North.

Harriet’s selflessness and disregard for personal safety, along with her deep faith in God, enabled her to help family members and many others to escape the chains of slavery.

She continues to inspire countless Americans more than a century after her death.
